

Larry F. Worthy, CIA, CISA, CFE

Larry Worthy is currently the Director of Asset Protection for the University of North Texas. Previously, he held various audit positions including the Vice-President of Internal Audit and Security at FTS International, Director of Internal Audit with Six Flags Theme Parks, Vice President of Internal Audit for Clear Channel Communications and Manager of Internal Audit for the H. E. Butt Grocery Company and an Operational Auditor with the Air Force Audit Agency for 11 years. Larry started his career with the Department of Justice.

He is a past President of the San Antonio Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) and earned the IIA's Distinguished Faculty Member designation as a volunteer instructor.

Larry is a frequent speaker at international and national events such as the IIA's 57th Annual International Conference, IIA's Internal Auditors in the Government Conference the IIA's Best Practices Conference and an 11-year veteran of the University of Texas at Dallas' annual Fraud Symposium.

Larry earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Southwestern Oklahoma State University. He holds the Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) and the Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) designations.

Larry is an avid outdoor cooker skilled in various grills, griddles, dutch ovens, griddles and fire pits. He is also a fitness enthusiast logging over 1.8 million meters on indoor rowers and ski ergs.