

Sarah E. Baker – Biography

Sarah E. Baker, CPA, has provided over 15 years of professional accounting to the Texas higher education landscape, and is currently serving as the Interim Associate Vice President for Finance and Administration & Controller at Texas A&M University-Commerce. She previously held the position of Director of Accounting and Financial Reporting at the University since September 2013. She has been with TAMUC as a full-time employee since 2006, serving in various accounting roles throughout her time. She has served as the Grant Accountant, Senior Accountant, Financial Reporting Coordinator, and Director of Reporting. Currently, she oversees payroll, student accounts, accounts payable and travel, general accounting, property management, post award grant administration, state accounting, reconciliations, and the accounting for the Texas A&M University-Commerce Foundation and Alumni Association.

Sarah enjoys playing racquetball, swimming with her son, and skeet shooting, as well as helping with the University's rodeo program. She is a member of the First Baptist Church in Winnsboro and participates in their choir program.